WOMAN FORCES ASQUITH TO YIELD TO SUFFRAGISTS

Sylvia Pankhurst, Starving on Steps of Parliament, Wins Her Battle.

JUST OUT OF PRISON.

Premier Finally Agrees to Receive Women's Delegation To-Morrow.

LONDON, June 19 .- Sylvia Pankhurst is receiving the tumultuous applause of the suffragettes to-day because Premier Asquith has capitulated to her and agreed to receive a deputation of six women from her branch of the militants to-morrow morning. He had repeatedly refused to receive a delegation of Pankhurstisns, and only a week ago refused to see Sylvia and a delegation when they invaded the House of Commons.

But determined, though pale and week from her eighth auccessive bunger strike, Bylvia kept up the ight until abe won, where her mother and her sister Christabel had failed. It is believed it was Sylvia's threat to starve herself to death at the en- | whole again. trance of the House of Commons uness the Premier agreed to hear a delegation of women, that finally brought his surrender. His consent to receive the militants is regarded as beginning a new policy on part of the Government and an indication port that it realizes it has used the wrong lies methods in dealing with the "furies." If it adopts a sort of "middle of the road" policy it will not surprise many an afficial circles, who believe that the extremists on both sides henceforth will get a hearing, though possibly Bittle real satisfaction.

An attempt is being made to conviace the public the Premier had desided to grant the conference hours before Sylvia was released from Holway Jail last night.

Sylvia Pankhurst was arrested cot ago for attempting to lead i delegation to Westminster to demand the audience Mr. Asquith has now ised. She said when she got out Holloway she would continue Under the provisions of the cat and

JURORS ON LIST OF THOSE "FIXED" BY EXPLOSION THAT FACE WHITMAN

All Deny Knowledge of Solomon. Who Gave Away Names Before His Arrest.

District-Attorney Whitman is investigating a long list of names of jurors revealed, before his arrest, by Milton Solomon, now charged with jury fixing, as those of men whom he controlled and through whom he could "swing" a jury. The list contains many names and Mr. Whitman is summoning the men to his office one by one. So far each man be has interviewed has denied that he ever heard of Solomon.

Solomon, with George Jamison of No. 78 Bank street, was arrested in Nassau street saloon on Wednesday night after Detectives Mc-Clinchey and Armstrong had given Jamison $35 in marked bills and Solomon $25, according to their charge. Solomon and Jamison are in the Tombs in default of ball awaiting arraignment before Magistrate Herbert in the Tombs Court, and when they appear they will be arrested on bench warrants on a joint indictment found against them to-day.

Jamison was a juror in the case of Raffray & Hazard in the Supreme Court over some mining stock, and when M. A. Houghton, a detective in the employ of Abraham Gruber. noticed Solomon, who was supposed to be on duty in another part of court, loitering about the door of Justice Donnelly's part, where the Raffray-Hazard trial was in progress, he told McClinchey and Arm-

col. Gruber warned Mr. Whitman against Solomon last March, and since then had kept Houghton after him. According to the detectives, Solomon agreed to swing the case before Justice Donnelly for $300, of which he and Jamison were each to get half, and in his efforts to assure them. them of his ability revealed the list of names which he said were those of men on whom he could count.

Helmsman of Alden Declares He Was Afraid Empress of Ireland Would Hit His Ship.

QUEBEC, June 19 -- Odin Sabje, sec ond mate of the steamship Alden. testified at the Empress of Ireland inquiry to-day that when the Empress passed his ship on the St. Lawrence shortly before the fatal collision with About six hundred men went into the collier Storstad he noticed that the mine this morning before the the Empress was steering badly and had to port his helm to avoid her.

This testimony was introduced by counsel for the Storstad's owners in corroboration of the testimony yesterday of James Galway, a quartermaster on the Empress, who said the vesel's steering gear was defective.

Sabje, who is a Norwegian, was second mate on the Alden. The Alden the Empress went by. She was about six points off on the starboard bow. It was 10.20 P. M. According to the witness, when he saw the Empress's masthead lights there was a red one. then both lights showed, then only the green one, then both and finally the red only. This happened five or six times, he said. She was steering badly, he insisted, and he had to port his helm between 1 1-2 and 2 points to avoid her.

"Were you afraid of a collision?" asked J. W. Griffin for the Storstad's

"I was; I was going to call the cap-"I was; I was soing to call the cap-tain," said the witness. He added that the Empress had passed on the port side half a mile away. Hans Olveren, another sailor on the Alden, corroborated Sabje.
